

A crabbing man does not talk a lot makes his own boat from trees in his back yard
And he digs potatoes and picks tomatoes

And when the winter winds come
He sets by his fireplace
Eating crabs with potatoes, tomatoes

Barry Wyatt Jr.
My songs are my prayers
Linking my songs together creates my life story